Carol Can't Make Up Mind

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Where the blue Pacific gently washes the sunny shores of Southern California, everybody knows that Dick Annott loves Carol Appel.

The trouble is, Carol can't make up her mind. So— Last Wednesday she got a bundle of record albums of love songs in the mail.

On Thursday a bouquet of flowers three feet wide came to the door.

On Friday, a 500-word telegram.

On Saturday, a big newspaper ad.

On Sunday, a 13-page love letter.

On Monday, two 30-second radio commercials asking for her hand in marriage.

"I'm impressed," says Carol, a 26-year-old divorcee with two children Andy, 3, and Robby, 6. "But, seriously, I haven't made up my mind yet."

HOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset Man Caught in Slaying of Sheriff

MOUNTAIN HOME, Ark. (AP)—Edwin O. Pitman, 28, wanted in the slaying of Baxter County Sheriff Emmett Edmonds, was captured early today outside the home of his wife's parents at nearby Cotter, ending one of the most massive manhunts ever staged in the rugged Ozark Mountains.

Pitman was spotted by volunteer deputy John Ed Isbell of Little Rock about 12:30 a.m. and the capture was made 15 minutes later by Boone County Sheriff Doyle Hickman of Harrison.

Authorities said that as many as 200 persons had participated in the round-the-clock search for Pitman following his escape from the Baxter County Jail here early Saturday morning.

Edmonds, 49, the father of three, was killed during the jailbreak when he and another officer were overpowered by Pitman. Edmonds was felled by two bullets, police said today. Previous reports said that he had been hit three times.

After Isbell, an engineer designing a water sewage project for Mountain Home, spotted Pitman, Hickman moved in from two blocks away and quickly made the arrest.

He said Pitman dived under a pickup truck when lights were beamed in on the house.

Officers said Hickman ordered Pitman to come out from under the truck, hold his hands up and move with his back towards the officers.

Pitman offered no resistance, police said.

A 357 magnum pistol, identified as belong to city policeman Abe Heiskill, was found at Pitman's feet.

The fugitive from Cotter had been jailed on a charge of attempted burglary and was to have appeared in circuit court Wednesday at a pretrial session.

Funeral services for Edmonds were scheduled for 2 p.m. today at the First Baptist Church here with burial in Memorial Gardens.

Slayer Says His Rights Violated

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U.S. District Judge Oren Harris gave attorneys 25 days Monday to file written briefs after conducting a habeas corpus hearing for a state penitentiary inmate who claims his rights were violated when he voluntarily confessed to murder.

Jack R. Bell Jr., 49, of Augusta, is serving a life sentence for the slaying of Leland McFall of Mountain Home in 1964. Bell is seeking a new trial on the ground that he was not advised of his rights to remain silent and consult an attorney before he confessed to the slaying.

Services will be at 3 p.m. Wednesday at Marlbrook Baptist Church by the Rev. Johnny Carlton and the Rev. Wesley Thomas. Burial will be in Marlbrook Cemetery by Oakcrest Funeral Chapel.

Funeral rites of Dr. L. T. Lawrence who died Sunday were to be held at 3 p.m. Tuesday at First Presbyterian Church by the Rev. James A. Mitchell of Little Rock. Burial was in Memory Gardens by Oakcrest Funeral Home.

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Willis J. Potts, 73, pioneer in pediatric surgery credited with devising a heart operation that saved hundreds of "blue babies" from death, died Sunday. Potts' technique, developed in 1946, involved correction of congenital heart defects that cut off oxygen supplies in infants and gave their skin a blue color.

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. John R. Nichols, 69, educator, agronomist and U.S. commissioner of Indian affairs in the early 1950s, died Sunday after suffering a stroke. He was president of Idaho State University for 14 years.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Rex Carlton, 53, producer, director and writer who was president of Laurel Films in New York and Rex Carlton Productions in Hollywood, was found shot to death in his apartment. Police said death apparently was by suicide.

The track said that under Rule 14.06 of the Kentucky racing regulations, "when a sample indicates the presence of such medication, such horse shall not participate in the purse distribution." Under the rules of racing, the wagering on the race is not affected.

It is customary to take a urine sample from the winner after the Derby. A sample is also made of another horse chosen by lot. The second horse tested Saturday was Kentucky Sherry.

Rep. Feild Seeks Job of Speaker

REP. FEILD

HOPE, Ark. (AP) — On a January day in 1941, a young lawyer from Hope took his seat in the Arkansas General Assembly as state representative from Hempstead County.

Six governors, a world war, the space race and countless thousands of bills later, 55-year-old Rep. Talbot Feild Jr. of Hope is still holding forth as one of the House leaders.

Feild holds the distinction of being the only pre-World War II member of the House. Sen. Lee Bearden of Leachville is the only senator to serve prior to the war.

Feild who took time out from his legislative career twice—to serve in World War II and later to run for prosecuting attorney—hopes to put a new feather in his cap if all goes well for him in this year's legislative elections.

For the first time in his long career in the General Assembly he is a candidate for speaker of the House. The only other announced candidate is Rep. Hays McClerkin of Texarkana.

By a quirk of coincidence the two sit side-by-side in the House chamber.

Feild who is chairman of the powerful House Rules Committee said he had been persuaded by his colleagues to seek the House speakership.

"It has been many years since Hempstead County has had a representative to serve as speaker of the House" he

Tuesday, May 7, 1968 declared. "And I feel it would be an honor for my people if I could be elected to this position. So really it is the people running as much as it is me."

Feild said he felt his chances are excellent at this stage. A similar statement has been made by McClerkin. The speaker will be elected formally on the opening day of the 1969 General Assembly.

A native of Hope, Feild is a graduate of Hope High School and the University of Arkansas' School of Law. He has practiced law at Hope since graduating—except for the time he served as a naval aviator.

He got his first taste of politics in 1938 when he ran fourth in the eight-man race for two legislative seats. He came back two years later and triumphed. In 1948 he was unsuccessful in his bid for prosecuting attorney. He was elected to the House in 1952 and has served continuously since the 1953 session.

Feild has a total of 20 years in the House and is tied with three other members for seniority. Feild is one of the most active members of the Legislative Council, the off-season arm of the General Assembly. His most recent concern is the U.S. Treasury Department's decision to remove the exempt status of industrial bonds issued by cities and counties.

Feild said he — like most legislators — is seriously concerned over Arkansas financial plight.

"It is my judgment that a determination should be made — and the expenditure of funds should be reduced proportionate to the budgetary reflections of an impending deficit," he said.

"I know the people of my county do not want more taxes. I know they want us to curtail expenditures and have the cost of government stay within the income."

He suggested that the Rockefeller administration might try some belt-tightening in order to stabilize the financial situation.

MARIJUANA: IS IT OVERRATED?

Dear Helen: I tried marijuana. My only reaction: Disappointment!

Here I'd risked a felony charge, maybe a jail sentence, and a record that might knock me out of college and good jobs. For what? A "high" so low I could have done better on two swallows of wine!

So I started asking around. Know what I found out? More than half the persons who try pot get nothing from it. Others admit the "high" they feel is mostly from being with a group that expects it—sort of a self-hypnosis thing. I didn't find one experimenter who reported a real psychedelic experience. Mostly they said the effects were nothing much—a kind of lethargy that lasts no more than two hours, and often never comes at all. Some said they "understood" more deeply under pot, but planned down, they conceded they felt about the same after a couple of beers.

It's possible that the grass students can get is so cut it's worthless. Maybe the real stuff might produce the "highs" we read about. All I can say, from my experience and my research, is: "Marijuana, HOKUM! It's heap big smoke, not much fire."

That's why so many try it once or twice, then forget it. Since I started my research, I've been amazed at the number of people curious enough to risk getting busted, then so disillusioned they wondered why they bothered.

Of course, feature story writers don't hear this side of the story often since one-time users aren't about to get involved. So the reporters talk only to constant users—maybe pushers—who have a financial stake, or a real dependency on drugs. These people naturally paint pretty enticing pictures. . . And the word spreads, so the tempted (like me) experiment.

Well, I tried pot and I'm glad, because now I know I'll never try it again. Not only does it "send" me absolutely nowhere, but it leaves a miserable taste in your mouth, it smells sickening—and I inhaled so deeply, trying to get the most out of the joints, that my bronchial tubes (or whatever) were sore for two days.—OTHER SIDE OF THE PICTURE.

Dear Other—And Others: Yours is a composite letter, compiled from over a dozen I've received on the subject of "MARIJUANA—HOKUM!"

I've asked several teenfriends to gather local opinions—completely anonymous, of course. Their reports tally with yours: Except among a few, they say, the general viewpoint on pot is—"It's not what it's smoked up to be."

True, anyone who wants marijuana can get it, but, they add, the majority don't want it more than once, for two reasons: 1. They're "paranoid" (afraid of getting busted), and 2. It's nothing much, therefore not worth the risk.

NOTE TO READERS: I'd like many more reports on individual reactions to pot, for I think this side of the picture rates exploring. You needn't sign your names or addresses, and your letters will be kept completely confidential.

May I hear from you?—H. "P.S. You know, I'm beginning to believe marijuana is like "making out" in the back seat of a car. It's vastly over-rated,

NEW YORK (AP) — The low-budget hot weather variety shows rarely cause much excitement and creep away quietly when September rolls around.

But George Carlin, one of the bright young comedians who is very serious about the joke business, says that his summer replacement assignment last season in Jackie Gleason's CBS spot, plus a number of bookings on Johnny Carson's "Tonight Show" on NBC have been the two most important breaks in his career.

The Gleason replacement gave him stature, and the Carson show gave him a special kind of exposure. One immediate result was that his price as a guest star went up. Another was a flood of bookings on the top variety shows. And the third and not least was a part in a forthcoming Doris Day movie.

Carlin is a West Side Manhattan boy who does not look like a comedian, and who both writes and performs his own material. In addition he has served a couple of hitches writing material for other performers as in NBC's Music Hallseries.

Carlin has little trouble keeping his material fresh. Much of his humor is topical and he works largely with a cast of five characters he has created.

He can satirize politicians and political institutions by slipping into his character of "Council-

Baltimore Shuts Out Detroit

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Dave Leonard has joined Baltimore's growing trend toward inactivating relief pitchers, although less strikingly than Sam McDowell's method of putting hitters out of business.

The 26-year-old rookie right-hander kept the Orioles' bullpen in moth balls for the sixth straight game by cutting down Detroit on one hit Monday night as Baltimore beat the Tigers 4-0 for its eighth straight triumph.

"Those starters are getting serious," said reliever Moe Drabowsky after Leonard gave up only Jim Northrup's two-out seventh inning single for the Orioles' six consecutive complete game. "We'll have to have an intrasquad game Thursday for the relievers."

New York Yankee hitters — except for Mickey Mantle — also took an enforced rest as McDowell struck out 14 of them en route to setting a strikeout record and pitching Cleveland to a 3-2 victory.

The strikeouts, along with 16 in Sudden Sam's last outing, broke Bob Feller's American League mark of 28 for consecutive games, and came within one of Sandy Koufax' major league mark.

McDowell, pitching the Indians to their fifth straight victory, did give up seven hits, but only one did any damage — Mantle's 522nd career homer with a man on in the first inning, moving him into fourth place on the all-time list ahead of Ted Williams. Only Babe Ruth, Willie Mays and Jimmy Foxx are ahead of him.

Leonard and McDowell thus overshadowed Tommy John's three-hitter that pulled the Chicago White Sox by the California Angels 5-1.

In the only other American League game, the Oakland A's needed five pitchers to subdue Minnesota 2-1 for their fourth victory in a row.

In the only National League games, St. Louis edged the New York Mets 2-1 in 11 innings, Cincinnati mauled Philadelphia 10-1, Houston clobbered San Francisco 10-2 and Pittsburgh slipped by Atlanta 2-1.

Leonard, trying to match teammate Tom Phoebus's no-hitter April 27 that started the Baltimore spree, had some troubles, walking seven and hitting two. But the Tigers helped out by having four runners thrown out on the bases. He is now 2-0 after hurling a five-hitter earlier in the streak.

The shutout was the third in 10 games for the Orioles and lowered the staff's earned run average to 1.40 during that time. And on the bulletin board in the locker room was posted a "bullpen vacation schedule."

Dave May singled twice for two runs and Dave Johnson scored once and drove in another run off loser Joe Sparrma to raise the Orioles' league lead over the Tigers to 2½ games.

McDowell continued Cleveland's move toward halting hitters by mowing down the Yankees after Mantle's homer produced the most runs off Indians' pitching in five games. But McDowell got those runs back by singling home the tying and winning runs off Mel Stottlemyre during a three-run third inning.

Only in the ninth did the Yankees get another chance when a single and two walks loaded the bases with one out, but McDowell got two pinch hitters on a pop up and a fly out for his third victory in four decisions.

John fell behind in the second inning on Bubba Morton's first homer of the season, but from there had little trouble running his record to 3-0.

Rookie Bill Melton put him ahead by singling in two unearned runs in the fourth inning off Rickie Clark after Bobby Knopp's error, and Bill Voss doubled in a run in the ninth and Tom Cullen followed with his first homer.

Reggie Jackson's fourth inning solo homer, his fifth, off Dean Chance, 3-4, put Oakland and Jim Nash ahead 2-1, but Nash, 1-2, had to leave in the seventh with a leg injury.

Manager Bob Kennedy, keeping his bullpen in action, then used Ed Sprague, Paul Lindblad, Diego Segui and Tony Pierce to save the victory.

New Coaches Happy With Selections

NEW YORK (AP) — "I'm very happy with our selections," said John Kerr.

"I'm all excited," said Larry Costello.

Kerr, coach of the new Phoenix Suns in the National Basketball Association, and Costello, his counterpart with the new Milwaukee franchise, both reacted favorably Monday to the players they picked up from the established teams in the league's expansion draft.

Phoenix obtained such players as Dick Van Arsdale and Emmette Bryant from New York, Gail Goodrich from Los Angeles, McCoy McLemore from Chicago, Dick Snyder and Gene Tomohlen from St. Louis and George Wilson from Seattle.

Milwaukee drafted, among others, Fred Hetzel of San Francisco, Wayne Embry from Boston, Len Chappell from Detroit, Guy Rodgers from Cincinnati and Jon McGlocklin from San Diego.

Kerr signed with the Phoenix team after two years at the helm of the Chicago Bulls.

Costello retired as a player for Philadelphia after an early season injury.

Each of the 12 established teams was allowed to protect seven of its players and, after one of those remaining was selected, could protect one more.

Namath Up for a New Contract

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — If Joe Namath was worth $400,000 when he came out of Alabama what is he worth today to the New York Jets?

The Jets will find out soon, if they haven't been told already, just what Namath wants to sign a new term contract with Sonny Werblin and his partners. The original agreement, signed early in 1965, has expired.

As the super glamor star of a team that has fantastic drawing power at Shea Stadium, Namath is in a strong bargaining position. Although he has undergone numerous operations on both knees, his quick right arm represents the Jets' attack.

Werblin talked with Namath during the late winter, shortly after he was released from the hospital. When last heard from Namath was soaking up the sun in Florida.

Fran Tarkenton, the New York Giants' quarterback, also has a little business with the front office before the 1968 season. He finished the second year of a two-year contract originally signed in Minnesota when the '67 season ended.

There have been preliminary talks between the Scrambler and Well Mara, president of the Giants, but nothing definite has been announced. Tarkenton, too, will come high in his new New York setting.

The pro clubs have been meeting with resistance from the top draftees, many of whom are being represented by agents. Several No. 1 picks remain unsigned. Many are competing in track, baseball, or other spring sports and some hope to remain eligible to compete for the United States in the Olympic Games in Mexico next October. The big bonus money has disappeared.

Cards Win, Giants Lose to Houston

By RON RAPOPORT

Associated Press Sports Writer
Roy Hofheinz presented Willie Mays with an Astrodomical birthday cake, but Denny Lemaster wasn't giving away a thing.

Hofheinz, the Texas-thinking owner of the Houston Astros, helped the Giant slugger celebrate his 37th birthday in the Astrodom Monday night. He gave Mays a cake weighing 569 pounds, one for every one of his career homers.

Then the game started and Willie might have been back in the dressing room eating his cake for all the hitting he did. He went 0-for-3 at the plate as Lemaster shackled the Giants and Rusty Staub and his teammates poured it on for a 10-2 Houston victory.

The cake, according to those who did the counting, was eight feet square and contained 3,800 eggs. Hofheinz also gave Mays a couple of gallons of champagne, which he thoughtfully shared with his fellow Giants to drown their postgame sorrows.

In other National League games Monday night, Cincinnati bombed Philadelphia 10-1, Pittsburgh edged Atlanta 2-1 and St. Louis trimmed New York 2-1 in 10 innings.

In the American League, Baltimore blanked Detroit 4-0, Cleveland beat New York 3-2, Oakland topped Minnesota 2-1 and Chicago took California 5-1.

Staub, spraying hits with abandon, drove in six runs for the Astros with a double and three singles. Gaylord Perry, 2-2, was the victim of seven runs in the first two innings. Lemaster gave up the Giants' only run on Willie McCovey's seventh homer in the eighth.

John Bench broke out of a hitting slump with a homer, a single and a double in the Phillies' lopsided triumph. George Culver went the distance for Philadelphia despite giving up 10 hits. Pete Rose homered and extended his hitting streak for the Reds to 21 games.

Donn Clendenen's two-run homer in the fourth inning, his fourth of the season, gave Pittsburgh the slim margin it needed to beat the Braves. Jim Bunning allowed Atlanta just four hits, but had to leave in the eighth with a twisted ankle. The injury was not believed to be serious.

Lou Brock tripled in the 11th and scored on Orlando Cepeda's single to break up a tight duel between Bob Gibson of the Cards and Tom Seaver of the Mets. Gibson, striking out 11, gave up only three hits and none in the last seven innings. Seaver gave up just three hits after the second.

Nipped at Post by His Own Horse

CARLISLE, England (AP) — A jockey finished third in a race at Carlisle Monday night — nipped at the post by his own horse.

Chris Collins was riding Dandy Tom to a second-place finish behind Signal Guide when Dandy Tom threw Collins off.

Collins jumped up and ran after his horse. The horse crossed the finish line after Signal Guide and Collins finished third. It was a photo finish among the three.

Unfortunately for Collins, and for Dandy Tom's backers, the jockey was unable to catch the horse. Having lost contact, both horse and rider were disqualified.

Clay Drops Round in Draft Fight

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Former world heavyweight boxing champion Cassius Clay has lost another round in his legal fight to avoid a prison sentence imposed for refusing induction into the Armed Forces.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals here Monday upheld Clay's conviction and five-year prison term, rejecting his claims to be a conscientious objector because of being a Black Muslim minister.

Clay, who prefers his Muslim name of Muhammad Ali, was convicted on criminal charges by a federal court jury in Houston, Tex., last June 20. The judge gave him the maximum sentence—five years behind bars and a $10,000 fine.

Lawyers for Clay, who is free on $5,000 bond, have promised a fight to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Clay's battle with the federal courts began April 28, 1967, at the Houston Induction Center, where, in a highly publicized move, he refused to take the traditional one step forward which signifies entry into the military.

The influential U.S. boxing circles stripped Clay of his title when he defied the draft, but some countries of the world continue to recognize him as champion.

In its opinion the court noted that Clay "claims to be a minister of the lost nation of Islam (Black Muslims)" and maintains he was due a ministerial exemption from the draft.

Tracing Clay's activities back several years, the judges decided, "his vocation is clearly that of a professional boxer."

Clay contended that his constitutional rights had been violated by a systematic exclusion of Negroes from draft boards.

But the court quoted the National Advisory Commission on Selective Service as saying "there is no evidence that the variability of the Selective Service systems leads to any systematic biases against poor people, or Negroes."

Glory Not Concern of Blues No

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Montreal Canadiens feel the St. Louis Blues have "got pride," and Canadian goalie Gump Worsley says "this is where the glory is."

But glory isn't the immediate concern of the Blues. They just want to even the National Hockey League's Stanley Cup championship seven-game series at 1-1 tonight. The Blues lost the first game 3-2 in overtime Sunday. The third and fourth games will be played Thursday and Saturday in Montreal.

Montreal's John Ferguson says the Blues also have something else going for them.

"They've got a lot of fellows who want to beat this organization," Ferguson said. He meant the half-dozen Blues who used to work for the Canadiens.

Of course, Montreal has a couple of things going, also. Like strong fast skaters, deadly shooters and tenacious defenders. The Canadiens also have a lot of rest, something the Blues have had precious little of. Montreal had played nine playoff games going into the finals, the Blues 14. Montreal had played one overtime game, the Blues six.

Snake Time

Ford 'Done Good'

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — (NEA)—Glenn Ford is another one of those disgusting Hollywood actor fellers who refuse to join the Middle-Age Spread Movement. At 51, he still looks as fit as he did back in the 1940s.

And, like most of the big stars, he's friendly and outgoing. One of the guys. Almost.

At the Quinpiac Shooting Center, Ford was about to tackle a sport somewhat removed from potting bad guys on the flickering screen.

"I guess I'd better be good," Ford grinned, scanning the swelling throng of neighbors who had drifted in to the gun club when they heard about his appearance. He joined his squad on skeet field No. 4.

The Quinpiac Club is in an exposed spot, the fields facing a small body of water, and the winds that swirl between East Rock and West Rock—New Haven landmarks—do funny things to the clay targets. The high-house bird comes out low and hard, while the low-house target soars up erratically, sometimes bouncing a foot or more in gusts.

Ford took his position at Station One and called for the bird. No problem there. He broke it at about the crossing stake. Low One was a bit trickier, but he got that, too. And his doubles.

Ford walked away smiling, aware that the spectators hanging on the spiral fence were smiling, too. Their hero done good.

Gurney Likes the Piston-Engine Cars

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Dan Gurney says he prefers to stay with the conventional piston-engine cars rather than switch to the revolutionary turbines.

"This wouldn't be much of a race if everything out there was a turbine," Gurney said Monday during practice for the Indianapolis 500-mile race.

"You may see that day" when turbines fill the field for the Memorial Day race, he said, "but I'd like to be able to say I was one of the last ones to make the switch."

Gurney, of Costa Mesa, Calif., drove his rear-engine Ford 167.2 miles a hour Monday—fastest since 500 practice began May 1. "There's something about a piston-engine car—the noise, the feel," Gurney said.

The Lighter Side of the Sports World

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Laughing At Sports:

A Philadelphia relief pitcher touched his hand to his mouth three times while warming up, after which he and his manager were ejected. The result: Three balls and two outs.

Heavyweight boxer Buster Mathis said he wants to play football for the New York Jets. With his build, he should be playing for the New York Giants.

Tommy Davis is doing radio commercials for men's hosiery. The White Sox can use some more long socks.

While he's not working, why doesn't Cassius Clay sign on as Jimmy Ellis' sparring partner? Satchel Paige is seeking the Democratic nomination for state representative in Missouri. That grand old man is still making his pitch.

It was revealed that boxer Jerry Quarry had bruised several ribs when he banged up against a juke box. He must have wanted to get some sort of a record going.

Bill Sharman is lucky to be coaching Los Angeles' new ABA team. He's going to be starting with all Stars.

Former major league catcher Earl Battey was hired as a baseball consultant by Con Edison. They must need more power.

Ralph Custer is a pitcher for the Eastern Baseball League's Waterbury Indians. Wonder whether he'll make the team's last home stand.

Tom McCraw of the White Sox made three errors in one inning and left the following day for weekend military duty. He probably needed some basic training.

Convention Delegates to Clash

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The clash of two Democratic National Convention delegate slates favoring Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and one backing Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., highlights today's District of Columbia primary.

On the Republican side, a party slate split between former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is challenged by a dissident slate weighted heavily toward California Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Some 165,000 voters—about three-fourths of them Democrats—are eligible to cast ballots before the polls close at 8 p.m. EDT.

But because the nation's capital is using long paper ballots—and because some 400 candidates are running for 169 party posts—the winners may not be known for several days.

Although slates are entered in both party races, voters can pick individual candidates for the 23 Democratic delegate slots and 9 GOP convention posts.

The Democratic primary started out as a contest between backers of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., and the organization ticket which supported President Johnson.

Political Developments at a Glance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Here is a summary of top political developments.

The Indiana Primary: Democratic presidential rival Sens. Robert F. Kennedy and Eugene J. McCarthy in three-way contest with favorite-son Gov. Roger D. Branigan. Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon unopposed.

The District of Columbia Primary: Kennedy and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey convention delegate slates compete. Two GOP delegate slates include supporters of Nixon, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and California Gov. Ronald Reagan, a favorite-son.

The Ohio Primary: Interest centers on Democratic race between incumbent Sen. Frank J. Lausche and former congressman John J. Gilligan, and on convention delegate selection.

The Alabama Democratic Primary: Former Gov. George C. Wallace, third party presidential candidate, expected to win Alabama's 32 Democratic convention delegates.

The Florida Primary: Candidates for Senate seat being vacated by Democrat George A. Smathers are former Gov. Leroy Collins and Atty. Gen. Earl Faircloth, Democrats; and U.S. Rep. Edward Gurney and former St. Petersburg Mayor Herman Goldner, Republicans.

Knight Group Wins Several Pulitzers

NEW YORK (AP)— The 1968 Pulitzer Prize for fiction has been awarded to William Styron's controversial novel, "The Confessions of Nat Turner," which was based on an 1831 Negro slave revolt.

John S. Knight, and staff members of two of his newspapers were honored Monday with three separate Pulitzer Prizes for journalistic excellence—a triple triumph unique in the 52-year history of the awards.

Knight, editorial director of the Knight Newspapers, won one for distinguished editorial writing. Eugene Gray Payne of Knight's Charlotte, N.C., Observer, was named the outstanding editorial cartoonist of 1967.

The staff of Knight's Detroit Free Press, which has been shut down since last November in a labor dispute, was cited for local reporting of the 1967 Detroit riots and their causes.

For the fourth time in the past six years, no award was given for drama.

The Pulitzer Prize for meritorious public service was won by the Riverside, Calif., Press-Enterprise for its expose of corruption in the courts in connection with the handling of property and estates of an Indian tribe in California.

George F. Kennan, former U.S. ambassador to the Soviet Union, became a two-time prize winner. He received the 1968 award for biography for "Memoirs 1925-1950." In 1957 he won in the history category.

Rookie Limits Tigers to Only 1 Hit

BALTIMORE (AP) — Dave Leonhard, a college graduate and former schoolteacher, rated no better than A-minus for his 4-0, one-hit victory over the Detroit Tigers Monday night.

The rookie right-hander of the Baltimore Orioles also issued seven walks and hit two batters as his performance fell short of the no-hitter hurled by teammate Tom Phoebus on April 27.

The way the Baltimore pitcher

ing staff has been going lately, it takes a one-hitter just to gain attention.

Leonhard's route-going effort was the sixth in a row for the Orioles, tying a club record set in 1961. Over the past 10 games, the staff has turned in three shutouts and compiled an earned run average of 1.40, with six hits the most given up in any game.

"I know it sounds phoney," Leonhard said, "but I would have been more disappointed losing the shutout than the no-hitter. A no-hitter sounded like such a wild thing."

Bamboo has been observed, in Ceylon, to grow as much as 16 inches in a day.

My Sincere Thanks

I wish to take this method of thanking the citizens of Hempstead County for the confidence in me and I will continue to serve everyone to the best of my ability.

Sincerely,

West's one no-trump overcall showed the equivalent of an opening no-trump. North's two-heart bid indicated a poor hand with heart support. With a good hand, North would have doubled. East's three-diamond call was competitive, while South's jump to four hearts was the bid that anyone else would have made.

West opened the king of diamonds and continued with the ace. The late Sidney Silodor, who sat South, ruffed the second diamond and led hearts. West won the second heart and returned the suit, and Sidney was in dummy with two tricks lost and two more potential losers.

It would be simple enough to try both black finesses, but Sidney did not even consider that line of play. He simply counted up the points for a 16-18 no-trump and saw that West was marked with both the king of spades and queen of clubs. He had to find some way to eliminate one of those black losers.

One method would be to play his ace and queen of spades. If West held exactly two spades, he would be employed then and there, but if West held two spades, East would hold five and would probably have bid some number of spades. So the spade play was out.

Only one line that could succeed remained and Sidney adopted it. He played ace, king and nine of clubs. He played the nine because it was just possible that, with an original holding of four clubs, West might decide that East held the jack and duck.

It wasn't likely that West would fall for this play, but it was likely that he didn't hold as many as four clubs. So Sidney played clubs and, when West took his queen, he had to lead away from his king of spades in order to avoid giving Sidney a ruff and discard.

Witch Hazel Water Has No Special Powers

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—I have heard that placing pieces of cotton soaked in witch hazel on one's closed eyelids is a good way of relaxing and rejuvenation. Is this true? Is it safe to put witch hazel so close to one's eyes?

A—Witch hazel water has no special powers but it does smell good. If a little got in your eye it would prove mildly irritating but the tears would wash it away and no permanent harm would result.

Q—What is the cause of blepharitis? Is it due to smog? None of the medicines I have used has helped me. Is there any cure for it?

A—Blepharitis or inflammation of the lids may be caused by irritating cosmetics or uncorrected errors of refraction, especially astigmatism. A smog that caused conjunctivitis might by extension cause or aggravate a blepharitis. In some persons blepharitis is an indication of poor general health. Improvement would follow closer attention to adequate rest, diet and exercise.

If the blepharitis is chronic it is often hard to cure. Keeping the lids clean and free of crusts and applying yellow oxide of mercury ointment every night should help.

Q—My eyes are dry and burn all the time. My doctor gives me drops but they relieve the burning only temporarily. What do you advise?

A—Dryness of the eyes may be caused by infections, burns or drooping of the lower lids.

There is no permanent cure in most cases. The use of drops that contain glycerin or emulsified cod liver oil is the best treatment. You should use the drops as many times a day as needed for comfort.

Q—I have vascular spasms in my right eye. My doctor prescribed Paveril. What does it do? Are there any bad side effects?

A—Dioxyline (Paveril) is given to relax blood vessel spasms. Side effects are rare. Too large a dose may cause nausea, dizziness, sweating, flushing and abdominal cramps.

Q—What is the safest way to remove a foreign body from a person's eye?

A—First, wash your hands thoroughly. Pull the upper lid up and have the victim look down. If you can locate the speck, brush it away gently with the moistened corner of a clean handkerchief. If you do not see the speck, pull the lower lid down and have the victim look up. If the speck can't be located, irrigate the eye with a soothing eye wash. If you find the foreign body but can't remove it easily, it may be imbedded in the cornea. In that case, its removal should be attempted only by a physician.

arguments on the issues, since he and Kennedy share essentially the same views on the problems confronting the nation.

Brannigan does not. For example, he supports the current U.S. position in Vietnam. But he didn't make much of that in his folksy-styled campaign, arguing instead that he was an Indian out to preserve the state's influence at the Democratic National Convention.

The governor, who first entered the primary as a stand-in for President Johnson, denied in an interview that he is really promoting the cause of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey now that the President has stepped aside.

Humphrey became a White

House candidate too late to contest the primaries.

Crucial in the Democratic battle is that a voter can take the ballot of either party. Brannigan was counting heavily on a crossover of Republican votes to support him against the two Democratic senators.

There is no party registration in Indiana. More than 2.6 million persons were eligible to vote in the last general election.

The last firm figures, which are three years old, indicate about 342,000 Negroes lived in Indiana, representing 6.7 per cent of the population. The Negro population has increased since that report was compiled, with concentrations heaviest in the Gary area and in Indianapolis.

Kennedy anticipated substantial support in Negro precincts.

She is 5'1½" tall, weighs 98 pounds, has brown hair and dark brown eyes and measurements are 34-21-34.

Says Whitbeck Once Praised His Work

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Former Insurance Commissioner John Norman Harkey released Monday a letter he received in December from gubernatorial candidate Frank Whitbeck, in which Whitbeck praised Harkey's work.

Whitbeck, a Little Rock insurance executive, has attacked Harkey's administration of the Insurance Department twice in recent weeks, saying Harkey had corrected some problems in the industry but that he had also been over-aggressive and had hurt it.

Whitbeck said on television Sunday that Harkey's administration "was throwing the baby out with the bath water. It was making the entire industry looking suspect and bad while it was correction a few infractions. It gave us an image throughout the country that was improper."

Harkey, who resigned late last year and then was appointed to the state Commerce Commission, said the letter of praise from Whitbeck was dated Dec. 18.

Whitbeck wrote that Harkey had "strengthened the purpose of insurance supervision and it is to your personal credit that so much has been accomplished this year."

Koreans Claim U.S. Agents Are Captured

TOKYO (AP) — North Korea claimed Tuesday to have captured a band of "U.S. agents" who had slipped across the demilitarized zone before dawn to commit "murder and subversion."

The North Korea Central News Agency said the band was armed with "various lethal weapons." It did not say how many men were captured. By U.S. agents, the Communists presumably meant South Korea. Tobago is said to be the island of Daniel Defoe's "Robinson Crusoe."

Boycott of Stores at Spa Planned

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Two grocery stores operated by the Cooley chain will be boycotted, the president of the Hot Springs chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said Monday. The official, the Rev. Thomas McVeigh Smith, said, "We are now announcing that a policy of selective buying is in effect with Cooley's stores No. 1 and 2 because they not only refused to offer to hire Negroes, but even refused to talk."

Smith made the statement after NAACP members and representatives of the Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce met with managers of four grocery stores Monday.

Brewer Is New Governor of Alabama
MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — The moment Gov. Lurleen Wallace died, a Decatur attorney, Albert Brewer, 39, was projected into the chief executive's office.
As lieutenant governor he succeeded her today under Alabama's laws of succession.
Brewer, who was elected to the legislature at the age of 26 and subsequently became the

Humphrey, Kennedy Face Tests

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey face their first 1968 primary tests today in two of five elections around the nation.
The primaries are in Indiana, Ohio, Alabama, Florida and the District of Columbia.
Kennedy's major test is in the Indiana primary against Democratic presidential rival Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy — and Gov. Roger D. Branigin who was expected to get some Humphrey supporters' votes.
In the District of Columbia primary, Humphrey and Kennedy slates are competing for Washington's 23 delegate nominating votes at the Democratic National Convention.
In other political developments:
— Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon, campaigning in Nebraska for the May 14 primary there, called for a new diplomacy to deal with any future Communist aggression.
There should be diplomacy, he said in Omaha, "so that when the freedom of friendly nations is threatened by aggression, we help them fight the war and don't fight the war for them."
— In final Indiana campaign bids, Kennedy traveled through northwest industrial sections and McCarthy through Indianapolis. Branigin called estimated large numbers of undecided voters "a good sign" for his candidacy.
— Humphrey accentuated the positive at a luncheon in New York City. "I do not believe America is sick," he said. "It is leaving the age of innocence and coming into its maturity."
— Democratic Sen. Carl Hayden, 90 — elected Arizona's first U.S. congressman in 1912 — announced he will retire early next year. He has been in Congress nearly 57 years, longer than any other man.
Nixon was unchallenged in Indiana and no write-in votes were permitted. His supporters have fought a Democratic drive for GOP crossover votes to Branigin, which would hurt Nixon's Indiana showing.
In the Kennedy-Humphrey District of Columbia confrontation, there were two slates for Humphrey — one inherited after President Johnson announced he would not run. And there was a Kennedy slate.
In the District's GOP contest, a party delegate slate split between supporters of Nixon and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was challenged by a slate weighted in favor of California Gov. Ronald Reagan, who has said he is only a favorite-son candidate.
The Alabama primary was held in a pall of sorrow following the death earlier in the day of Gov. Lurleen Wallace, who had fought cancer for two years. Her husband, former Gov. George C. Wallace, was expected to win the 32 Democratic convention delegates even though he is a third-party presidential candidate.
Ohio interest centers on the Democratic contest between incumbent Sen. Frank J. Lausche and John J. Gilligan, Cincinnati city councilman and former congressman.
The Ohio Democratic Executive Committee backed Gilligan, who also has AFL-CIO support.
Ohio voters also are selecting 115 Democratic convention delegates and 58 Republican delegates.
Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, a favorite-son presidential candidate, backed Kennedy for a time but now is plugging for an uncommitted delegation.
Gov. James A. Rhodes was favored to head the Republican delegation as a favorite son.
In Florida, the key contest is for the Senate seat being vacated by Democrat George A. Smathers.
Former Gov. LeRoy Collins and Atty. Gen. Earl Fairoloth are the Democratic Senate candidates. The Republicans are U.S. Rep. Edward Gurney and Herman Goldner, mayor of St. Petersburg three terms.
Florida's 63 Democratic convention and 34 Republican convention votes are to be assigned May 28 at party conventions.

Every Business
Absurd Except
Your Own

Yesterday was my lucky day. Four months ago Hope Star lost a $7.52 discount — but recovered it yesterday. I was explaining it to Henry Haynes, who happened by the office, and he said the situation paralleled many an experience in merchandising.

Our case was that of a shop supplier who ships from Tennessee but bills us from Chicago. The invoice takes a discount if paid within 10 days — a cute device which stabs operators who pay off but once a month. My defense is to warn the staff to inspect every invoice for discount terms, and if one calls for payment within 10 days it is put on my desk for immediate payment.

Back in February, however, this supplier's invoice popped up on the invoice file with the discount deadline expired — and I suspected the staff of having routed the bill around my desk. They denied it, so I set up a dog-watch on the next shipment from this particular supplier.

The new shipment came in 10 days ago, but up to noon yesterday there was no invoice in the house. I telephoned Chicago, demanded the late-running invoice, and at the same time notified them I would deduct not only the current discount but also the one we missed last February — and Chicago agreed.

In some respects every business seems absurd except your own. But there are common denominators which make all businesses alike. Discounts are just part of the universal story. Years ago when I was a young fellow in Arkansas doing business with the home bank in Pennsylvania the distant banker remarked:

"Newspapers are a crazy business. Everything is upside down. For instance, you claim circulation as an asset, when it's really a liability — you take people's subscription money and have the liability of delivering the paper to them for a year."

Nevertheless circulation is an asset — for it's the base on which you sell advertising... 70 per cent of a newspaper's income.

We're not the only "upside down" business. How about that Pennsylvania banker who was second-guessing me? His statement, like every other bank statement, is "upside down" too.

A bank reports deposits as a liability. But for operating purposes they are an asset, the size of deposits being kept prominently in the public eye for they are the base of a bank's ability to make loans and profits.

Asset... Liability... truly, every business is absurd except your own.

Red Delegation Arriving for Paris Talks

PARIS (AP) — The vanguard of the North Vietnamese delegation arrived in Paris today and their leader said he is optimistic about preliminary talks with the United States on ending the war in Vietnam.

The group included 23 persons, headed by Col. Ha Van Lao.

He was one of the negotiators of the 1954 Geneva agreements that ended the French-Indochina war.

The colonel, an adviser to Xuan Thuy, Hanoi's chief negotiator, told newsmen: "I am optimistic."

Industrial Park Money

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Jefferson County, Ark., Port Authority will receive a $1.2 million Economic Development Administration grant to develop a waterfront industrial park.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said Monday that the authority will match the grant to meet the cost of the $2.4 million project.

The park would create 100 jobs immediately and has a potential of 1,500 jobs, McClellan said.

Says March Will Turn Into Riot

By WILLIAM MORAN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan says he'll expose plans by parties as yet unnamed to turn the Poor People's Campaign in Washington into a riot.

The Arkansas Democrat, chairman of a Senate investigations subcommittee, said he'll reveal what the panel uncovered about discussions by persons he said plan to move in during the planned nonviolent demonstration and "engage in rioting and battling."

His comments in the Senate came as Congress was considering Monday 26 bills aimed at limiting use of federal property by demonstrators for camp-ins.

The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, is organizing caravans of poor people heading for Washington from Southern towns and cities across the nation.

The SCLC has not revealed where the demonstrators will camp while in Washington but reportedly favors building a "shanty town" on the Mall, between the Lincoln Memorial and the Washington Monument.

The first contingent of the Poor People's Campaign is due in Washington Monday. Campaign planners say they expect up to 15,000 demonstrators in the city by May 27.

One congressman, Democrat Alton Lennon of North Carolina, told a House subcommittee Monday he thinks 250,000 people will converge on Washington. Lennon is one of the sponsors of legislation prohibiting issuance of permits for any camp-ins.

Rep. William M. Colmer, D-Miss., told the subcommittee the primary objective of the demonstration is to cause trouble despite what its leaders say.

"They're not concerned about the welfare of the average poor person," Colmer said. "They're coming here to cause trouble." Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., said the capital city is so gripped with fear that federal troops should be stationed in the streets now.

Hard to Place Germs on a Time Schedule That Pleases Doctor

By JOY STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — I'm trying very hard to put my germs on a time schedule that will coincide with that of my doctor.

Weekends are strictly out. Nobody will pay a bit of attention to them — especially the reluctant visitor with the little black bag — until Monday afternoon at the earliest.

For some time now I've had them trained not to act up on Wednesday afternoons, either. That day has long been reserved by my friendly neighborhood practitioner for chasing around the golf course.

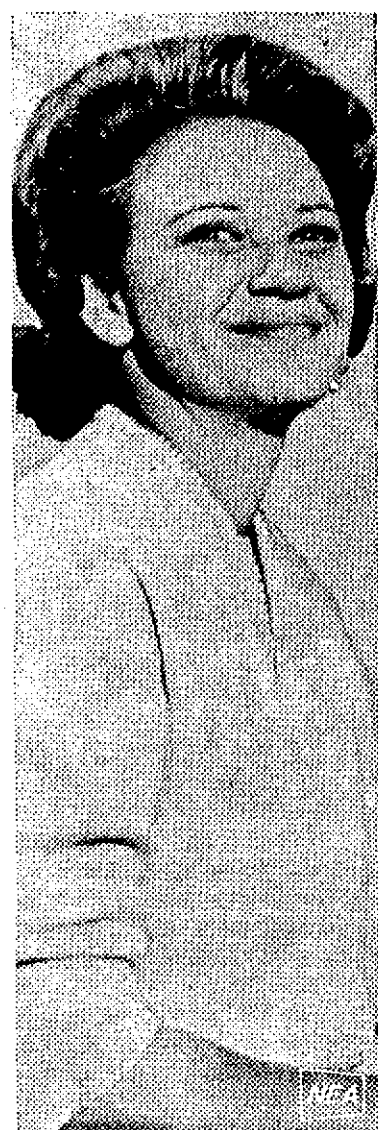

In the past, the best time for me to get sick was 2 p.m. Monday, Thursday, or Friday, or from 6 to 8 any night of the week. These were the hours my doctor regularly held open house, and provided I wasn't too weak to struggle to his office, I could be sure of a cure.

Then one Tuesday, suffering from a pain in my side, I presented myself and my symptoms on his doorstep at the appointed hour. At 6:15 p.m. I was still waiting outside his waiting room. So were a few other impatient patients.

Somebody at last noticed the small card affixed to the outside of the door. "New office hours," it read, "are from 6 to 8 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Fridays."

My pain and I went home and by the time the next set of office

Panel Gives Qualified Endorsement to LBJ's Proposed Tax Boost

POISED and pretty, Mrs. Lurleen Wallace posed after her election as governor.

By EDMOND LEBRETON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's income tax hike bill, cold-shouldered since last summer by the House Ways and Means Committee, is basking in the relative warmth of the panel's qualified endorsement.

But the congressional fight has escalated over the size of a proposed spending cut tied to the tax boost.

Making its first formal decision on the $10 billion income-tax increase request, the committee voted for the hike Monday provided federal spending is cut at least $4 billion.

The House Appropriations Committee had previously recommended this figure and Johnson has said he would accept it, although reluctantly.

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, ranking Republican on the Ways and Means Committee, called the panel's action "a surrender and a capitulation" in the face of White House urgings. The committee's vote for the tax bill was 17 to 6, with 13 Democrats and 4 Republicans supporting it. Byrnes and other Republicans opposed it.

As for the committee's setting a $4 billion minimum in spending reductions, Byrnes said: "That's their weasel out to accept $4 billion. For all practical purposes, $4 billion is now the ceiling as well as the floor for reductions."

Byrnes and other Republicans want a $6 billion cut, and the Senate has voted in favor of the larger amount.

The Ways and Means Committee's vote for at least $4 billion leaves Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and other economy advocates free to try for a deeper cut in the Senate-House conference committee which is trying to hammer out a compromise tax-spending bill.

It was largely Mills' insistence on substantial cuts in the President's budget for the coming fiscal year starting July 1 that kept the 10 per cent tax surcharge measure in his committee until there were solid signs of action on a spending cut.

Sen. John J. Williams of Delaware, the chief Senate Republican conferee, said he would hold out for $6 billion and expects the Senate to back him. He suggested Mills could carry the House conferees along on a similar stand.

10 Trapped Miners Not Heard From

By HOLGER JENSEN
Associated Press Writer
HOMINY FALLS, W.Va. (AP) — The call went out for skin divers today to aid in the rescue of 25 coal miners trapped inside a two-mile coal shaft by thousands of gallons of water.

The divers were due in from Philadelphia before noon to aid the miners trapped in the low, L-shaped mine shaft since noon Monday.

Surface rescue units, which worked through a night of near freezing temperatures, had made telephone contact with 15 of the entombed men. The other 10 were at the low end of the flooded shaft and had not been heard from since water poured through a mine wall from an adjacent abandoned mine.

The officials hoped the three divers equipped with scuba, self contained underwater breathing apparatus, could make their way to the miners with air tanks and possibly food. Rescue directors scored a breakthrough when they lashed plastic tubes containing water, sandwiches and hot coffee to the mine conveyor belt to the 13 trapped nearest the entrance.

The packages went in at 4:44 a.m. and 13 minutes later, the radiotelephone crackled with the word, "We got 'em."

"I know 15 of the guys are going to be okay," said Ernest Fitzwater, who escaped from the mine just before it became flooded.

But he said the 10, including his brother, Joe, are at the deepest part. "There is no way they can get out alive."

The men were chipping coal from the wall of the mine, located about 70 miles southeast of Charleston in southeastern West Virginia, when they punched through into an abandoned mine filled with water.

Arnold in Race for Prosecutor

W. H. "Dub" Arnold, Arkadelphia attorney, announces his candidacy for the office of prosecuting attorney of the eighth judicial district. The district is composed of four counties, Clark, Nevada, Hempstead and Miller counties.

Arnold is a native of Clark county and has lived most of his life in Arkadelphia. He is married and has two children. Arnold is a graduate of Henderson State College and the Arkansas Law School. He was admitted to the Arkansas Bar in March of 1963 and has practiced law since that date. He served as Deputy Prosecuting Attorney in Clark county for two years.

In announcing his candidacy for this office, he states that he has been encouraged by citizens throughout the district to run for Prosecuting Attorney, especially jurors who have served on recent criminal cases, law enforcement officers, lawyers and merchants who have had business with the prosecuting attorney. They have voiced concern about the manner that the Prosecuting Attorney's office has been handled and feel that a change is needed at this time.

Arnold ran for this office in the last Democratic primary and was defeated by a small margin. He seeks your support and votes in the coming Democratic Primary.

Indiana to Vote on 3 Candidates

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Indiana votes today in a Democratic presidential primary in which the images and personalities of the three contenders overrode the issues.

There was a Republican primary, too, but Richard M. Nixon already had it won. He was alone on a ballot on which write-in votes will not be counted.

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, who drew the biggest crowds and topped the voter opinion polls, was confident but publicly silent on the outcome.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy said he was stronger than pollsters reported, and indicated he would claim success if he could get over 20 per cent of the vote.

Their rival, Indiana Gov. Roger D. Branigin, said simply: "I think I'll whip 'em." He wouldn't venture any more specific forecast.

The answer rested with an estimated one million Indiana voters, as many as 750,000 of them expected to cast Democratic ballots to choose among the two senators and the favorite son governor.

McCarthy acknowledged that the Indiana choice was one of image and personalities, not of See INDIANA TO

Kentucky Derby Winner Disqualified

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Dancer's Image, winner of the Kentucky Derby, was disqualified before the race, Churchill Downs said today.

He will be disqualified, placed last, and all winnings turned over to Calumet Farm, owner of the second place horse, Forward Pass.

The track said a chemist for the state racing commission reported that an analysis of the urine sample taken from Dancer's Image "contained phenylbutacone and/or a derivative thereof." Phenylbutacone is a pain killer and stimulant, the track said.

The track said a thorough investigation is being made of the incident, but declined to elaborate.

Dancer's Image, owned by Boston auto dealer Peter Fuller, came from last place Saturday to edge out Forward Pass in the 94th running of the Derby. France

No Mood for Tax Hike, Whitbeck Says

JACKSONVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Gubernatorial candidate Frank Whitbeck of Little Rock said Monday night that the state has "painted itself into a corner" financially but that there is "no mood for a tax increase in Arkansas."

Whitbeck, the Little Rock insurance executive who is seeking the Democratic nomination for governor, made the remarks in a speech to the Jacksonville Junior Chamber of Commerce.

He said the state needed educational reform immediately to take advantage of the state's manpower.

"If you don't have an educated citizenry in the state, you can't go anywhere," Whitbeck said.

Tanks Join in Battle of Saigon

By GEORGE ESPEY
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — American tanks and armored personnel carriers joined the new battle of Saigon today, cutting off a Viet Cong attack from the southwest in the third day of hard fighting on the city's fringes.

U.S. troops had not been used inside Saigon since they helped smash the Viet Cong's lunar new year offensive in February. In the latest assaults, which began Sunday, the Americans have been outside the capital searching the enemy units which might further threaten the city.

U.S. officers believed the enemy thrusts both around Saigon and in South Vietnam's northern sector were aimed at giving the North Vietnamese a bargaining edge when preliminary peace talks with the United States open in Paris this week.

In the north, officers reported one enemy force surrounded near Hue and others withdrawing from around Dong Ha after losing more than 1,000 men in six days of close-quarter fighting.

The battle in southwest Saigon today began when an estimated 150 Viet Cong tried to push into the city attacked a South Vietnamese outpost near the Kinh Doi Canal.

Armored personnel carriers from the U.S. 9th Infantry Division moved in to cut them off. The infantrymen reported killing 35 enemy soldiers, and five Americans were wounded.

The fighting subsided for a time, and the surviving Viet Cong made a break for the bridge across the canal and into the city. But a second company of 9th Division armored personnel carriers got to the bridge first and pushed the Viet Cong into a factory building.

South Vietnamese rangers took up blocking positions east of the factory, and the American armored force moved in on the trapped Viet Cong.

U.S. helicopter gunships and South Vietnamese dive bombers also attacked the Viet Cong invaders and other guerrillas holding out in a shantytown off Saigon's western edge.

A senior U.S. officer said the main enemy threat was along the city's western fringes, where the Viet Cong has an estimated two battalions near Saigon's Tan Son Nhut airport, but "we have the situation definitely in hand."

10 Per Cent Mortgage Money Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government announced Tuesday the maximum interest rate on mortgages insured by the Federal Housing Administration; and guaranteed by the Veterans Administration has been raised from 6 per cent to 6 1/2 per cent.

The action does not affect the interest rate on mortgages previously insured by the FHA or guaranteed by the VA.

Secretary Robert C. Weaver of the Department of Housing and Urban Development said the increase should increase the flow of mortgage funds into the housing market.

Meanwhile Lloyd E. Clark, president of the National Association of Home Builders, said the increase probably would increase the monthly payments of people buying homes, but might bring down the price of some homes.

The action occurred shortly after President Johnson signed into law legislation removing the 6 per cent interest ceiling, permitting rates on FHA and VA mortgages to find their own levels in the market place.
